From Australia to China
Barossa to Shanghai

Teresa Garden, Barossa valley

Teresa Garden Wines is a boutique winery inheriting the family culture in South Australia's Barossa Valley which is one of the world's top five wine region with the oldest Shiraz vines on earth.

Since 1843 the South Australia Shiraz wines was served to the British Royalty, then honoured as the British royal family wine. Teresa Gardens Wines located in the heart of Barossa Valley. Surrounded by premium Shiraz vineyards with a history dating back more than 170 years. In 2017, the year of the 107th birth anniversary of Saint Mother Teresa, Teresa Garden is named for the winery to commemorate her great love for nature and life.

Beyond putting efforts on higher quality vineyard and wine, blending in humanities and arts is a concentration of Teresa Garden Wines. Vineyard and wine are both generous gifts to humanity from Mother Nature. Particularly the vineyard is the natural homeland for human livings. Teresa Garden Wines owns various resources of international artists and devotes to joint the vineyard, wine and diverse art cultures together, expressing and pursuing the truth and beauty of art, delivering both traditional and modern elements of family culture together. Teresa Garden Wines imprints human history, art and culture heritage onto every grape and every bottle of wine.

All grapes undergo meticulous care and pick at the charming Teresa Garden, leads to a rich and fruity aroma, complex and long finish. Each bottle of wine is filled with pursuit of humanities and art, respect for nature, and yearning for a better life.
